

LONG-FORM NOTICE

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY

A federal court authorized this Notice. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

A settlement has been reached in a class action lawsuit pending in the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey titled Amazing Fishstore LLC et al. v. TD Bank, N.A., D.N.J., Civil Action No. 1:22-cv-00958-KMW-AMD (the “Action”). In the Action, Plaintiffs were challenging TD Bank’s practice of assessing (1) Overdraft Fees on transactions that were authorized at a time when the Account’s Available Balance was positive but later paid by TD Bank when the Account’s Available Balance was insufficient to cover the transaction (“APSN Fee”); and (2) Overdraft Fees or NSF Fees on debit transactions that were returned unpaid by TD Bank due to insufficient funds and subsequently resubmitted by a merchant or other third party for payment and returned unpaid or paid into overdraft (“Retry Fee”). The lawsuit contends, among other things, that TD Bank’s assessment of such fees in these circumstances was not authorized by the terms of the Business Deposit Account Agreement. TD Bank disputes that contention and denies it engaged in any wrongdoing. The Court has not decided which side is right. The Court has tentatively approved the proposed Settlement Agreement (available at TDBankBusinessAccountClassAction.com) to which the Parties have agreed (the “Settlement”).

Current and Past Account Holders of a TD Bank business checking account (“Account”) who, between February 23, 2016, and September 30, 2022 (the “Class Period”), were assessed an APSN Fee or Retry Fee by TD Bank may be eligible to receive a payment.

Read this Notice carefully. This Notice advises you of the benefits that may be available to you under the proposed Settlement and your rights and options as a Settlement Class Member.

SUMMARY OF YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS IN THIS SETTLEMENT
DO NOTHING AND RECEIVE A CHECK OR ACCOUNT CREDIT	If you do nothing, you will receive a payment from the Net Settlement Fund, so long as you do not opt out of or exclude yourself from the Settlement (described in the next box).
EXCLUDE YOURSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENT	You can choose to exclude yourself from the Settlement, or “opt out.” This means you choose not to participate in the Settlement. You will keep any individual claims you may have against Defendant, but you will not receive a payment or other settlement benefits. If you exclude yourself from the Settlement but want to seek recovery from Defendant, you will have to file a separate lawsuit or claim.
OBJECT	You can file an objection with the Court explaining why you believe the Court should reject the Settlement. If your objection is overruled by the Court, then you will receive a payment, and you will not be able to sue Defendant for the claims asserted in this litigation.
GO TO A HEARING	You can ask to speak in Court about the fairness of the Settlement. You may speak if you submit an objection that complies with the requirements in Question 16 along with a letter saying you intend to appear and wish to be heard that complies with the requirements in Question 20.

These rights and options—and the deadlines to exercise them—are explained in this Notice.

The Court still has to decide whether to approve the Settlement. If it does, and any appeals are resolved, benefits will be distributed to members of the Settlement Classes who do not exclude themselves from the Settlement.

BASIC INFORMATION

1. Why is there a notice?

A court ordered this Notice be provided because you have a right to know about the proposed Settlement of this class action lawsuit and its effect on you. This Notice explains the lawsuit, the Settlement, and your legal rights. For purposes of this Notice, “you” and “your” refer to the holder of a TD Bank business checking account within the Settlement Classes, described in Question 5.

Judge Karen M. Williams, of the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey, is overseeing this case, Amazing Fishstore LLC et al. v. TD Bank, N.A., D.N.J., Civil Action No. 1:22-cv-00958-KMW-AMD. The entities who sued are the Plaintiffs. TD Bank, N.A. (“TD Bank”) is the Defendant.

2. What is this litigation about?

The lawsuit claims TD Bank breached its contracts with business checking accountholders by assessing and collecting certain Overdraft Fees and NSF Fees not authorized by Defendant’s account agreement.

You can review the complaint in this lawsuit on the Settlement Website TDBankBusinessAccountClassAction.com. TD Bank denies it engaged in any wrongdoing.

3. Why is this a class action?

In a class action, one or more entities called class representatives (in this case, Plaintiffs) sue on behalf of themselves and other entities with similar claims. Together, all the entities with similar claims are members of a class.

4. Why is there a settlement?

The Court has not decided in favor of either Plaintiffs or TD Bank (together, the “Parties”). Instead, the two sides have agreed to a Settlement. In doing so, the Parties avoid the costs and uncertainty of litigation and a trial, and Settlement Class Members (except those who exclude themselves) receive the benefits described in this Notice. The proposed Settlement does not mean any law was broken or that TD Bank did anything wrong. TD Bank denies all claims in this case. The Plaintiffs and their lawyers believe the proposed Settlement is in the best interests of Settlement Class Members.

WHO IS PART OF THE SETTLEMENT

If you received notice of the Settlement from a postcard or email addressed to you, then the Parties believe you are in one or both of the Settlement Classes. Even if you did not receive a postcard or email with notice of the Settlement, you may still be a member of the Settlement Classes.

If you did not receive a postcard or email addressed to you but you believe you are in the Settlement Classes, as defined below, you may contact the Settlement Administrator.

5. Who is included in the Settlement?

You are a member of one of the Settlement Classes if you are a Current or Past Account Holder of a TD Bank business checking account (“Account”) who, between February 23, 2016, and September 30, 2022 (the “Class Period”), incurred an APSN Fee or Retry Fee. An APSN Fee is an Overdraft Fee assessed by Defendant for debit transactions that were authorized at a time when the Account’s Available Balance was positive but later paid by Defendant when the Account’s Available Balance was insufficient to cover the transaction. A Retry Fee is an Overdraft Fee or NSF Fee assessed by Defendant on a debit transaction that was returned unpaid by TD Bank due to insufficient funds and subsequently resubmitted by a merchant or other third party for payment and returned unpaid or paid into overdraft.

6. What if I am not sure whether I am included in the Settlement?

If you are not sure whether you are in the Settlement Classes, or have any other questions about the Settlement, visit the Settlement Website at TDBankBusinessAccountClassAction.com or call the toll-free number 888-861-9530. You may also send questions to the Settlement Administrator at Amazing Fishstore Settlement Administrator, P.O. Box 5657, Portland, OR 97228-5657.

THE SETTLEMENT BENEFITS

7. What does the Settlement provide?

If the Court approves the Settlement and it becomes final, TD Bank has agreed to provide $10,500,000 to the Settlement Classes, which includes money for (a) payments to Settlement Class Members, (b) Class Counsel's Fee & Expense Award, (c) Administrative Costs, and (d) Service Awards to the Plaintiffs. TD Bank has also agreed to provide an additional $5,000,000 in the form of reductions to the outstanding balances of Participating Settlement Class Members who were charged APSN Fees or Retry Fees and whose Accounts were closed with amounts owed to TD Bank ("Overdraft Forgiveness Amount").

After paying the Fee & Expense Award to Class Counsel of up to 33% of the Value of the Settlement and Court-approved Service Awards of up to $5,000 to the Plaintiffs for their participation in the lawsuit, the remaining cash relief (the "Net Settlement Fund") will be distributed among the Settlement Classes. Settlement Class Members' cash awards will be distributed by account credit to current customers and by check to former customers.

8. How much will my payment be?

The balance of the Net Settlement Fund after Class Counsel's Fee & Expense Award, the Service Awards, and the Settlement Administrator's Administrative Costs will be divided among all Participating Settlement Class Members as outlined in the Settlement Agreement. Current customers of TD Bank will receive a credit to their Accounts for the amount they are entitled to receive. Former customers of TD Bank will receive a check from the Settlement Administrator.

9. When will I receive my payment?

The Court will hold a Final Approval Hearing on October 10, 2024, at 11:00 A.M to consider whether the Settlement should be approved. If the Court approves the Settlement, then payments should be made or credits should be issued within about 60 Days after the Settlement is approved. However, if someone objects to the Settlement, and the objection is sustained, then there is no settlement. Even if all objections are overruled and the Court approves the Settlement, an objector could appeal, and it might take months or even years to have the appeal resolved, which would delay any payment. Please be patient.

10. What am I giving up if I do not exclude myself from the Settlement?

If the Settlement receives Final Approval from the Court, every Settlement Class Member who has not excluded himself, herself, or itself from the Settlement Classes, each on behalf of himself, herself, or itself, and on behalf of his, her, or its respective past, present and future heirs, executors, administrators, assigns, beneficiaries, directors, officers, managers, employees, general partners, limited partners, principals, employees, insurers, reinsurers, attorneys, advisors, representatives, predecessors, successors, assigns, and legal representatives (collectively, "Releasing Parties"), shall automatically be deemed to have fully and irrevocably released and forever discharged TD Bank and each of its present and former parents, subsidiaries, divisions, affiliates, predecessors, successors, and assigns, and the present and former directors, officers, employees, agents (alleged, apparent, or actual), insurers, shareholders, attorneys, advisors, consultants, representatives, partners, joint venturers, independent contractors, wholesalers, resellers, distributors, retailers, predecessors, successors, and assigns of each of them (collectively, "Releasees"), of and from any and all liabilities, rights, claims, actions, causes of action, demands, damages, costs, attorneys' fees, losses, and remedies, whether known or unknown, existing or potential, suspected or unsuspected, liquidated or unliquidated, legal, statutory, or equitable, that constitute, result from, arise out of, are based upon, or relate to any of the claims that were asserted In the Action, and any of the conduct, allegations, acts, transactions, facts, events, representations, statements, omissions, duties, or matters up to and including the date of Preliminary Approval that were or could have been alleged in this Action by Plaintiffs or by any other Settlement Class Members relating in any way to the assessment of APSN Fees or Retry Fees, including, without limitation, any claims, actions, causes of action, demands, damages, losses, or remedies relating to, based upon, resulting from, or arising out of Defendant's practices, policies, and procedures related to the authorization, processing, payment, return, and/or rejection of an item or any failure to adequately or clearly disclose, in one or more contracts, agreements, disclosures, or other written materials, through oral communications, or in any other manner, overdraft fee practices, whether assertable in the form of a cause of action or as a private motion, petition for relief or claim for contempt, or otherwise, and in any court, tribunal, arbitration panel, commission, agency, or before any governmental and/or administrative body, or any other adjudicatory body, and whether based on any federal, state, local, statutory, or common law (including, without limitation, breach of contract and breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing), or any other law, rule, regulation, ordinance, code, contract, common law, or any other source, including the law of any jurisdiction outside the United States (including both direct and derivative claims), including any and all claims for damages, injunctive relief, interest, attorney fees, and litigation expenses ("Released Claims"). Each Settlement Class Member who does not exclude himself or herself from the Settlement Classes will also be bound by all of the decisions by the Court.

Section XII of the Settlement Agreement describes the legal claims you give up if you remain in the Settlement. The Settlement Agreement is available at TDBankBusinessAccountClassAction.com.

EXCLUDING YOURSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENT

If you don't want benefits from the Settlement, and you want to keep the right to sue TD Bank on your own about the claims in this case or any other Released Claims, then you must take steps to opt out of the Settlement. This is called excluding yourself, or it is sometimes referred to as "opting out" of the Settlement.

11. How do I exclude myself from the Settlement?

To exclude yourself from the Settlement, you must submit a statement with the following information:

- The name of this Action (Amazing Fishstore LLC et al. v. TD Bank, N.A., D.N.J., Civil Action No. 1:22-cv-00958-KMW-AMD)
- The Settlement Class Member's full name, address, and the last four digits of the Account(s) at issue
- The identity of the counsel representing you in this Action, if any
- A statement that you want to be excluded from the Settlement in this Action, and that you understand you will receive no money or other benefits from the Settlement
- Settlement Class Member signature and the date of execution. Any opt-out request submitted on behalf of a business entity must identify the title of the authorized individual signing the opt-out request.

You must mail your exclusion request, postmarked no later than SEPTEMBER 14, 2024, to Amazing Fishstore Settlement Administrator, P.O. Box 5657, Portland, OR 97228-5657.

12. If I do not exclude myself, can I sue TD Bank for the same thing later?

No. If you do not exclude yourself, you give up the right to sue TD Bank for the claims the Settlement resolves. You must exclude yourself from the Settlement Classes if you want to pursue your own lawsuit.

13. If I exclude myself, can I still get a payment?

No. You will not receive a payment if you exclude yourself from the Settlement.

THE LAWYERS REPRESENTING THE SETTLEMENT CLASSES

14. Do I have a lawyer in the case?

The Court has appointed lawyers to represent you and others in the Settlement Classes as "Class Counsel."

E. Adam Webb
 G. Franklin Lemond, Jr.
 WEBB, KLASE, & LEMON, LLC
 1900 The Exchange, SE
 Suite 480
 Atlanta, GA 30339

Jeffrey Kalief
 KALIEL GOLD PLLC
 1100 15th Street NW, 4th Floor
 Washington, DC 20005

Class Counsel will represent you and others in the Settlement Classes. You will not be charged for these lawyers. If you want to be represented by your own lawyer, you may hire one at your own expense.

15. How will the lawyers be paid?

Class Counsel intend to request up to 33% of the Value of the Settlement for their Fee & Expense Award in connection with this case. The attorneys’ Fee & Expense Award—awarded by the Court—will be paid out of the Settlement Fund Account. Class Counsel will file their Motion for Award of Fees, Costs, and Service Award by August 15, 2024. That motion will be available at TDBankBusinessAccountClassAction.com. The Court will review Class Counsel’s request and determine the amount of fees and expenses to award.

Class Counsel will also request Service Awards of up to $5,000 to each of the Plaintiffs—to be paid out of the Settlement Payment Amount—for their service as representatives of the Settlement Classes.

OBJECTING TO THE SETTLEMENT

You can tell the Court that you do not agree with the Settlement or some part of it.

16. How do I tell the Court if I do not like the Settlement?

If you are a member of one or both of the Settlement Classes, you can object to any part of the Settlement, the Settlement as a whole, Class Counsel’s request for a Fee & Expense Award, and/or Class Counsel’s request for Service Awards for the Plaintiffs. To object, you must submit a letter to each of the following addresses:

The Court	Defendant’s Counsel	Class Counsel
Clerk of the Court U.S. DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY Mitchell H. Cohen Building & U.S. Courthouse 4 th & Cooper Streets Camden, NJ 08101	Lucus A. Ritchie Joshua D. Dunlap PIERCE ATWOOD LLP 254 Commercial Street Portland, ME 04101	E. Adam Webb G. Franklin Lemond, Jr. WEBB, KLASE, & LEMON, LLC 1900 The Exchange, SE Suite 480 Atlanta, GA 30339

Your objection must be postmarked on or before SEPTEMBER 14, 2024, and must include the following information:

- The name of this Action (Amazing Fishstore LLC et al. v. TD Bank, N.A., D.N.J., Civil Action No. 1:22-cv-00958-KMW-AMD)
- The objector’s full name, address, email address, telephone number, and the last four digits of the Account(s) at issue
- All grounds for the objection, accompanied by any legal support for the objection known to you or your counsel
- A list of all documents you ask the Court to consider
- A statement of whether your objection applies only to you, to a specific part of the class, or to the entire class
- The identity of all counsel who represent you in this matter, including any former or current counsel who may be entitled to compensation for any reason related to the objection to the Settlement or fee application
- The number of times you have objected to a class action settlement in the past five (5) years, including the caption of each case in which you made such objection and a copy of any orders related to or ruling on your prior objections in each case
- If applicable, the number of times your counsel or your counsel’s law firm have objected to a class action settlement in the past five (5) years, including the caption of each case in which they made such objection and a copy of any orders related to or ruling on their prior objections in each case

- Whether you intend to appear and/or testify, or counsel representing you intends to appear, at the Final Approval Hearing
- The identity of all counsel representing you who will appear at the Final Approval Hearing
- A list of all persons who you or your counsel will call to testify at the Final Approval Hearing in support of the objection
- A signature for the objector and the date of execution (an attorney’s signature is not sufficient). Any objection submitted on behalf of a business entity must identify the title of the authorized individual signing the objection.

17. What is the difference between objecting and asking to be excluded?

Objecting is telling the Court you do not like something about the Settlement. You can object to the Settlement only if you do not exclude yourself. Excluding yourself from the Settlement is telling the Court you do not want to be part of the Settlement. If you exclude yourself from the Settlement, then you cannot object to the Settlement because it no longer affects you.

THE FINAL APPROVAL HEARING

The Court will hold a Final Approval Hearing to decide whether to approve the Settlement and whether to approve Class Counsel’s Motion for Award of Fees, Costs, and Service Award. You may attend and you may ask to speak, but you don’t have to do so.

18. When and where will the Court decide whether to approve the Settlement?

The Court has scheduled a Final Approval Hearing on OCTOBER 10, 2024, at 11:00 A.M at the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey, located at the Mitchell H. Cohen Building & U.S. Courthouse, 4th & Cooper Streets, Courtroom 4A, Camden, NJ 08101. The hearing may be virtual or moved to a different date or time without additional notice, so it is a good idea to check TDBankBusinessAccountClassAction.com for updates. At this hearing, the Court will consider whether the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. The Court will also consider any requests by Class Counsel for attorneys’ fees and expenses and for Service Awards for the Plaintiffs. If there are objections, the Court will consider them at the hearing. After the hearing, the Court will decide whether to approve the Settlement, the request for attorneys’ fees and expenses, and the request for Service Awards. We do not know how long these decisions will take.

19. Do I have to attend the hearing?

No. Class Counsel will answer any questions the Court may have. However, you may attend the hearing at your own expense. If you send an objection, you don’t have to come to Court to talk about it. As long as you submit your written objection on time to the proper addresses, and it complies with the requirements set forth in Question 16 above and in Section VII of the Settlement Agreement, the Court will consider it. You may also pay your own lawyer to attend, but it is not necessary.

20. May I speak at the hearing?

You may ask the Court for permission to speak at the Final Approval Hearing. To do so, you must submit an objection that complies with the requirements set forth in Question 16 above along with a letter saying you intend to appear and wish to be heard. Your notice of intention to appear must include the following information:

- The objector’s name, address, and telephone number
- A statement that this is your “Notice of Intention to Appear” at the Final Approval Hearing for Settlement in Amazing Fishstore LLC et al. v. TD Bank, N.A., D.N.J., Civil Action No. 1:22-cv-00958-KMW-AMD
- The reasons you wish to be heard
- Copies of any papers, exhibits, or other evidence or information that is to be presented to the Court at the Final Approval Hearing
- A signature for the objector, (an attorney’s signature is not sufficient). Any notice submitted on behalf of a business entity must identify the title of the authorized individual signing the notice.

You must submit your Notice of Intention to Appear so it is received no later than SEPTEMBER 14, 2024, to the addresses in Question 16 above. You cannot speak at the hearing if you exclude yourself from the Settlement.

IF YOU DO NOTHING

21. What happens if I do nothing at all?

If you do nothing, you will receive the benefits to which you are entitled under this Settlement.

GETTING MORE INFORMATION

22. How do I get more information?

This Notice summarizes the proposed Settlement. More details are in the Settlement Agreement. You can obtain the complete Settlement Agreement at TDBankBusinessAccountClassAction.com. You also may write with questions to the Settlement Administrator at Amazing Fishstore Settlement Administrator, P.O. Box 5657, Portland, OR 97228-5657, or call the toll-free number, 888-861-9530. Please do not contact TD Bank or the Court for information.
